You are your parents must be a resident of the metropolitan Atlanta area to be eligible for this grant. See attached map.

It is extremely important that all sections of the application be completed; specifically, the information requested on the second page stating the family/personal information and the financial aid information. The financial aid officer of the school that you attend or have been accepted must sign this section of the application.

All applications must be in my office no later than December 22, 2006 in order to be considered at our Board meeting in January. Should you have any questions, please feel free to give me a call.

Thank you and good luck to you in your future endeavors.

Regards,

V. Faye White
