Our professors freely express a common faith with the Southern Baptist Convention by affirming the Baptist Faith and Message 2000, a faithful and foundational interpretation of God's word which we seek to promote and extend in faithfulness to the calling of Jesus Christ. We support the enriching of this faith through further study of the content and application of Scripture, and the extension of this faith through the ministry of discipling and teaching the nations. A sampling of the scholars on the faculty includes:

- Dr. David Allen, professor of preaching, director of the Southwestern Center for Expository Preaching, George W. Truett Chair of Ministry, dean of School of Theology (BA, Criswell College; MDiv, Southwestern Seminary, PhD – Humanities, University of Texas at Arlington). Upcoming publications: Hebrews: New American Commentary Series, B&H, Spring 2010; Authorship of Hebrews: a Case for Luke, B&H, Fall 2010.

- Dr. William A. Dembski, research professor of philosophy. (MA, University of Illinois, Chicago; MDiv, Princeton Theological Seminary; PhD-Mathematics, University of Chicago; PhD-Philosophy, University of Illinois, Chicago). Selected Publications: How to be an Intellectually Fulfilled Atheist (or Not), Dallas Foundation for Thought and Ethics, June 2008; and Understanding Intelligent Design: Everything You Need to Know in Plain Language, Harvest House, July 2008.
- Dr. Richard Ross, professor of student ministry; assistant dean, division of Human Growth and Development; J.M. Price Chair of Religious Education (BA, Hardin-Simmons University, M(RE), PhD, Southwestern Seminary). Spokesperson, “True Love Waits” campaign, 1993-present.
- Dr. Terri Stovall, dean of women’s programs and associate professor of women’s ministries (BA, Corpus Christi State University; MA(RE), PhD, Southwestern Seminary). Co-author of Women Leading Women: The Biblical Model for the Church, B&H, 2009.
- Dr. David Thye, professor of church music and Robert L. Burton Chair of Conducting. (BA, University of Sioux Falls, South Dakota; MM, DMA, University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music). Conductor in residence, MidAmerica Productions, New York City, New York, 2005 – present.

BRIEF HISTORY

Southwestern Seminary has trained and sent out more than 40,000 graduates to serve in local churches and mission fields around the world. In 1908, B.H. Carroll established the seminary on the campus of Baylor University. It was moved to its current location on Seminary Hill in Fort Worth in 1910 and was placed under the direction of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1925. Paige Patterson was elected as the eighth president of the seminary in 2003.

MISSION

Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary exists to provide theological education for individuals engaging in Christian ministry. It strives to provide a community of faith and learning that develops spiritual leaders with a passion for Christ and the Bible, a love for people and the skills to minister effectively in a rapidly changing world.

The motto “Preach the Word, Reach the World” captures for a new generation of students the historic pledge of Southwestern Seminary to serve both Southern Baptist churches and a lost world by equipping ministers for their God-ordained task.
